FirstSarasota Baptist Honors FIT Leadership in Sunday Service

It was a special treat for local FIT leaders to be honored in the Sunday morning service at FirstSarasota on Main Street in Sarasota, FL. FIT appreciates this welcoming of this group representing many different churches. From left to right in the back are host pastor Bill Hild, FIT facilitators James Paulk, John Predgen, and Paul Webster, all from Sarasota; President Don Pratt from Bradenton, facilitators Joe Moore and Jon George from Sarasota, Don Batterman from Bradenton. In the front row are Mrs. Paulk, facilitators Sharon Johnson from Bradenton, Melissa Webster from Sarasota, and Geneva Presha from Palmetto as well as Board Secretary and Trainer Helen Campbell from Lakeland (with Mr. Campbell behind her). This photo was taken at the luncheon reception hosted by the church following the service.

First Course Graduations at Light Under the Bridge in Manatee County, FL

Shown here with Facilitator Margie Castle are Katie Wallis, Kelly Jackson, and Courtney Callahan. They are among four who received their certificate for completing the Anger Management Course.

Announcement

FIT is seeking volunteers to minister at the Hardee Correctional Institution in Wauchula, FL. The prison requires a 2-hour FL Department of Corrections orientation training, updated every two years. This training is accepted by all Florida state prisons. FIT also requires an all-day training session to certify as a FIT volunteer. At press time, the following training times were open:
